1.2 Summary of the Action

Climate change, environmental degradation and the loss of biodiversity are an interlinked and existential threat to PNG, Europe and the world. Unprecedented climate hazards cause dangerous and widespread disruption in nature and affect billions of people, especially those living in the most vulnerable situations.

Because of PNG's high level of vulnerability, climate change action plays an important role in its policy agenda. It is included in PNG's overarching Vision 2050 and central to its 2014 National Strategy for the Responsible Sustainable
